

Case Study

Bemis

Project

Turnkey Project Capability with Principal Contractor

Status

Project Outline

Providing a turnkey engineering package with single point responsibility is a core service of JW Morris.

Bemis Company Inc USA is a leading manufacturer of flexible packaging and pressure sensitive materials for food industry, medical, pharmaceutical, chemical, agribusiness, printing and graphic arts uses.

JW Morris have proved electrical & mechanical engineering services to Bemis at Swansea for many years – the most recent project being the construction of a new building for plant expansion and the complete engineering services associated with the process line installation.

JW Morris Role

- * Project Management.
- * Principal Contractor under CDM.
- * Design development.
- * Civil & Building services in association with Andrew Scott.
- * Structural steelwork in association with Rowecord.
- * Design & manufacture of 11,000/415V Package Substation.
- * Installation of Process Line.
- * Electrical Engineering Services.
- * Mechanical Engineering Services.
- * Fire Alarms & Protection Systems.

